CANTIZA
Amazing Andean Roses

Nestled at the foothills of the majestic Cayambe volcano, where the fertile Andean soil meets the artistry of innovation, Cantiza Floral Group proudly presents our collection of dyed Roses.

Located right on the Equatorial line, our farms are graced with 12 hours of daily sunlight, enabling us to create roses with bright, vivid colors and exquisite tinted hues that redefine elegance.

Our Tinted Roses are a perfect blend of nature and creativity, offering captivating colors and unique designs that will transform any arrangement into a masterpiece. With large blooms, sturdy stems, and unmatched vase performance, our roses embody quality and reliability.
